“ My heart is deeply saddened by the loss of your Dad, but this is one of those times that I truly have no doubt that he is in that perfect and beautiful paradise that our Lord and Savior promised us. Your dad was seven years older than me. When I was ten my dear Tio Angel recruited me to help with baby Ruthie. I was just a skinny insecure ten year old girl and remember one of the first times seeing your dad with two of his giant football buddies approaching the house... your dad holding a football laughing loudly and cutting up. He was in his own world enjoying being a big and tough football player. I just remember your dad was the only one on my male cousins I felt being nervous around. My cousin Saul was always smiling so I didn't feel intimidated around him. Sundays at my Tio's house during football games was as loud as it could be! Going forward fourteen years I got married and went to introduce my husband to my dear Tio Angel and made the mistake of going on a Sunday... It was still too loud to hear conversation. I'm sure my Tio was the ring leader of it all. When your dad and I finally connected I realized that he was just as caring, kind, and loving as my sweet cousin Saul. Your Dad cared and gave me lots of health advice. I tried not to talk about my diabetes and my eating habits. because he worried and scared me when he warned me of the dangers. He'd call me often. The very first time he called just to talk I remembered that big, strong, loud, and confident football player that I felt intimidated by. To my astonishment he continued to call just to check up and chat. I did the same for him in the last few years. I loved talking with him about God like I did with my He reminded me of my favorite Tio in the world! I thank God that you and your sister took him to rest close to you where he can be surrounded by care, peace, and where he will continue to be loved. I pray that he, Tio, and Beto can be as loud as they want in heaven and that he will be playing his guitar for the Lord. Thank you Father for his brand new body and for surrounding him with your loving presence...💛

I truly wish you 3 would have kept in contact more often with him. You would've known how sick he truly was, and not have been blindsided by his passing.

“ Amy and Debbie - I'm so sorry about your dad. I first met him when him and your mom were dating. He was this big football player and your mom was this little bitty cupie doll. He was always with the jokes and a hearty laugh. He will be missed and he knew without a shadow of a doubt how much he was loved by his girls.
