

Bonnie Elliott

July 27, 2018

Bonnie Bryan Dry Elliott

Born on May 4, 1936 to Elmer and Susie Bryan in Wilmeth, Texas.

Bonnie is Preceded in death by her parents, 2 sisters, 3 brothers and 2 husbands, Charles R. Dry and Harold Schreiber.

Survivors include her husband, Donald Elliott of San Angelo, son Tony and wife Janelle Dry of Abilene, daughter Teresa and husband Lonny Briley of San Angelo, grandsons, Tony Loehman of Abilene, Scott and wife Kassi Briley of San Angelo, Granddaughter, Michelle and husband Dakota Martin of San Angelo, three great-grandsons, four great-granddaughters, sister-in-law, Mary Bryan, one niece and four nephews.

Bonnie and Don loved to travel and was a retired beautician. Bonnie worked at Rio Concho Manor, was a member of First Baptist Church and Hope Sunday School Class. She volunteered at church and SAISD. Bonnie loved to help people out and was famous for her divinity candy.

A memorial service for Bonnie will be held at 3:00 P.M. Monday July 30, 2018 at Winters Funeral Home.

Bonnie's favorite charities are Winters Library, First Baptist Church, Meals for the Elderly and Hospice.

The family would like to thank Dr. Roberta Hinshaw and staff at Kindred Hospice, Regency nurses Romie Carter, Gloria, Nancy as well as the aides.