Carrie Chew, age 50, passed away peacefully January 12, 2019. The youngest of three, she was born to George O. Chew and Donna Jean Chew.

She had such a big heart and a bubbly personality. Carrie brought joy, love and laughter to everyone she met. She was the best daughter, sister, aunt, cousin and friend any of us could have asked for, and we are all so blessed to know her. We will carry her light in our hearts forever.

“ It hurts to know that my little cousin is no longer with us here on earth. She has always had an infectious laugh and smile. I cant remember very many times that she was angry. Even at work, she always had a way of brightening up the room she was in. Carrie is no longer in pain and she joins the loved ones that have gone before her to the paradise that God has prepared for her. I love you very much! Till we see each other again on the streets paved in gold and in the presence of our Savior.
