As a teenager, my friends and I had lots of Mothers, seven to be exact. Loretta was one of my favorites. There was not a lot we girls could get away with in such a small town and if one Mother knew, all knew. I'll never forget the club house we had and how secretive we thought we were when, in fact, it was no secret at all.

Loretta's sweet nature and warm smile has not to this day, and never will be, forgotten by me. To Karen, Alton, Janice and the rest of her loving family, I know she will be tremendously missed by all of you. Keep those blessed memories close and know that you will all be together again, but until then Loretta and Johnny are always with you.

Love and hugs to you, Karen. Wish I could have been there for you today. Your friend, Ginger
