

Patricia McClish

November 4, 1942 - May 18, 2023

Patricia Jean (Bahlman) McClish, a woman of strong Christian faith, passed into the Lord's arms on May 18, 2023 after a battle with the blood cancer, myelodysplastic syndrome.

Pat was born in Winters, TX in 1942 and graduated as salutatorian from Norton High School in 1961. She then attended Amarillo Bible Training Work, where she met and married her life-long partner Gary F. McClish. She later attended Weatherford Junior College and subsequently graduated from the University of North Texas with a B.S. in Home Economics and Education in 1970. She worked for Kraft foods until her daughter, Toni McClish West was born, at which point Pat and her husband opened an insurance agency. She retired as an insurance agent in March of this year. She was always a dedicated worker and a devoted mother and wife.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Gertrude and Rudolph Bahlman.

She is survived by her husband Gary F. McClish; her daughter and son-in-law Toni and Rob West; and her sisters Kay Talley, Doris Caffey, Catherine Burton, and Debra Simon.

The family will receive friends at 6:00 p.m. Sunday, May 21, 2023 at Winters Funeral Home. Graveside services will be held at 10:00 a.m. Monday, May 22, 2023 at Fairview Cemetery in Winters.
