

Randy Mabry

December 14, 1957 - February 27, 2020

Update March 19, 2020

Due to recent events, the memorial service for Randy Mabry has been canceled at this time. When or if this is rescheduled, we will post a new update. Sorry for any inconvenience this may cause.

Randy Mabry, 62, of San Angelo, TX, passed away on Thursday, February 27, 2020.

He was born to Fred and Janie Mabry in Winters, TX, on December 14th in 1957. He is survived by his daughter, Jalys Caro and husband Luis of Round Rock, TX. His brother, Kerry Mabry and wife Sandy of Bangs, TX. His Aunt Naomi Gerhart of Winters, TX, and Aunt Kay Busher of Winters, TX; as well as several cousins and other family members spread throughout Texas.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Fred and Janie Mabry, and his uncle's Milton Gerhart and Bud Busher.

He was a quiet man that enjoyed hunting and the outdoors, watching NASCAR races and supporting Texas Tech University. He was a master craftsman that loved to create and design. He could turn a simple piece of wood into an intricate and detailed shelf, cabinet, or even home. His intelligence and analytical abilities were used in the petroleum industry as his skills were requested to lead and complete jobs in Texas, Wyoming, New Mexico, Kansas, and international sites in Saudia Arabia, Russia, and Kuwait.

A remembrance service will be held at 2:30 pm Saturday, March 21, 2020, at the Winters Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

“ I remember us playing golf together, and having family get together, we miss you very much. rest in peace my brother. ”

kerry mabry - April 22, 2020 at 10:45 AM