

Rosetta Mayvon Jacob Dunlap

December 10, 1937 - August 18, 2017

Rosetta Mayvon Jacob Dunlap re-joined her cowboy in heaven on August 18, 2017.

Rosetta was born in Winters, TX. On December 10, 1937 to Lawrence and Leona Jacob. She attended school in Winters. After graduation she went to Arizona to a cousin's wedding and found the love of her life. She told him she was going to marry him on the second date, on the third date, he proposed. They were married at St. John's Lutheran Church in Winters, TX. On October 20, 1956. This farm girl and her cowboy enjoyed a loving marriage as their family grew to include Ricky, Leslie and Robby Jack. She spent much of her time cooking for her family, ranch workings, church camp and she certainly perfected this art. Yum Yum! She was very active in church and taught many young'uns to walk with God. Rosetta and Dick made their retirement home in Winters, TX., where she enjoyed tending her flowers, gardening, sitting in the yard drinking coffee with Dick.

She was preceded in death by; her husband John R. "Dick" Dunlap, her parents, Lawrence and Leona Jacob and her granddaughter, Katie Rochelle Miller.

Rosetta is survived by: Leslie Dunlap (daughter), Rob Dunlap (son) and daughter Tristen and Ricky Dunlap (son) wife Tammy; Richard and wife

Amanda, sons Hitch, Tripp, Skeet and Phinn; Luther and wife Kelsi, children Levi, Logan and Kelbi Jeanne, Jacob and spouse Josh; Brother; Billy Jacob of Abilene and a niece and nephew.

Rosetta will be lovingly remembered for her for her love of flowers and her crazy sense of humor.
