“ What can I say about aunt Jean. I have not seen her as much as before the last few years but we talked on the phone every few months and she never missed a beat. I always loved staying at their house as a kid, never wanted to leave. My wife and I stopped in to visit with her in October of last year and had a great visit. She had just got thru mowing her yard! lol I'll miss you sweet lady. See ya again some day.

“ Jean was a sweet kind lady. I remember her from our neighbor where we all lived and the girls which we all played together either Jean's house or ours. Also her friendship to my mom and dad. Jean will be very well missed but now she is with her family in heaven. Our prayers go out to the girls and her family 🙏🙏❤️

“ Jeanne was such a huge part of our family, especially since we all lived on the same street growing up, Granny Killough was at the other end of the street. I am so thankful to have known and loved Jeanne. She was such a sweet and talented lady. She and Leon are catching up! I am praying for y'all, Denise, Christi, and family. She touched so many lives in her lifetime. Love y'all.
